Lockdown Wednesday Lunches

Fr Andrew is coordinating our lockdown meal project until the beginning of December. We're offering a hot, home-cooked 2-course meal, delivered to the doorstep of those on their own, or finding things tough at the moment. A voluntary donation of £5 is suggested. Orders must be placed with Fr Andrew by noon on the previous Saturday (andrewinhaslingden@gmail.com, 07460 899451)

Knitters!

Can you knit? Even a bit? We need some help with people knitting stars and angels which we can distribute in the run up to Christmas to help us tell the Christmas story. Patterns provided and we could even find you some wool if you're short. Please contact either Rev'd Judith (07783 999837) or Fr Andrew (07460 899451)

Raft

Please remember that we are still collecting for Raft, our local foodbank. If you have items to be collected, please contact Fr David or Fr Andrew.

End of Lockdown

We are hoping to be out of lockdown from the beginning of December but there's no news yet. We are unable to plan properly for Advent and Christmas services until we know what restrictions will be placed on churches. Please keep a lookout on social media and our website, as well as our emails, for the latest news and information.
